Arrows In My Heart

(12" x 12" Finished Size)

Well, here we go again with lots of triangles. Since Valentine's Day is in February, I put this one together with arrows pointing to a heart. I think it makes a pretty pattern when placed with several other of the same blocks. This creates a hearts and diamonds effect.

Red – Cut six 2 1/2" squares.

Cut eight 2 7/8" squares. Cut each 2 7/8" square into two triangles for a total of sixteen (16) triangles.

Pink – Cut six 2 1/2" squares.

Cut four 2 7/8" squares. Cut each 2 7/8" square into two triangles for a total of eight (8) triangles.

White – Cut twelve 2 7/8" squares. Cut each 2 7/8" square into two triangles for a total of twenty-four (24) triangles.

I put together all of my pink/white and red/white triangles first using chain-piecing to create 2 1/2" squares. I then put the squares together by rows, then stitched each row together following the diagram to form the block.
